

Training Grants

The goal is to broaden the state's skill pool through grants for training projects that help build productivity, enhance earning capacity and job security. Training improves the quality of our goods and services and provides skills needed in today's workplaces that benefit Nebraska.

Let CED help your company complete your grant application for Rockwell Training or any CED training. We have been educated about the grant process & requirements and are willing to help out any customer interested in training.

Your company can apply every quarter and companies can earn up to $7000+ in training grants.

1. Decide what training classes and how many people will be attending those classes.
2. Talk to your HR department to see if your company already takes advantage of this program or would like to in the future.
3. Call your local CED to discuss Grant opportunity and to Complete Grant Application
4. Attend CED/Rockwell Training Classes
5. Fill out Grant Close-out Form
6. Receive your Grant Check.

* steps 5 & 6, only if your company wins the grant.
Applying for the grant does not mean you will win the grant.
